

A SIMPLE (but not easy) FOURTH STEP GUIDE

by Fr. Bill W.

How to approach the 4th Step inventory is a problem that, sooner or later, all of us in recovery have had to face. Over the years, dozens of different guides have been developed and circulated among our various 12-Step Fellowships. These guides range from simple list-making techniques to lengthy, analytical questionnaires, some totaling fifty pages and more. While all would agree that “a thorough housecleaning” is vital for anyone serious about recovery from addiction; obviously there are a great many opinions about how it should best be done. While I know the field of inventory guides is already overcrowded, for simplicity’s sake, and in memory of Dr. Bob, I’m willing to risk one more!

In 1934, when Bill Wilson joined the Oxford Group and found his sobriety, there were no 4th Step guides until 1938 there were no 12 Steps! What did exist was “a word of mouth program” based largely on the Four Absolutes or the Four Moral Standards the Oxford Group had adopted. These Standards were: Honesty, Unselfishness, Purity, and Love. Group members measured their thoughts, lives and actions against these four moral standards and from these and from other related Group practices emerged the 12 Steps.

Back then, the “housecleaning” called for was a fairly simple matter. Newcomers to the Group like Bill Wilson and Dr. Bob, as well as the first one hundred or so of their earliest followers, would likely have been asked to write down these Four Standards on four separate sheets of paper and then write about how they had fallen short in living up to them. They would then share their “moral inventory” with another group member, make restitution for the harms they had done, begin practicing a daily Quiet Time by reading scripture and listening for God’s guidance, and begin leading a life of maximum service to God and to others. Interestingly, the A.A. pioneers using this simple inventory tool achieved a recovery rate far in excess of what we see today. In his last major address to A. A. in 1948, Dr. Bob reaffirmed his longstanding commitment to the Absolutes:

“The Four Absolutes, as we called them, were the only yardsticks we had in the early days, before the Steps. I think the Absolutes still hold good and can be extremely helpful. I have found at times that a question arises, and I want to do the right thing, but the answer is not obvious, almost always, if I measure my decision carefully by the yardsticks of absolute honesty, absolute unselfishness, absolute purity, and absolute love, and it checks up pretty well with those four, then my answer can’t be very far out of the way.”

The Cleveland A.A. office still publishes a pamphlet on the Four Absolutes and Old-Timers, both there and around the country, believe they still have a great deal to offer us as a moral compass that can guide us on the way to a new life in recovery.

To help you complete a 4th Step using the Four Standards as a guide, here are a few suggested pointers and questions to get you started. First and foremost, remember that in Step Three you made a decision placing your life and your will under God’s protection and care. Now begin benefitting from this by relying on Him to show you the character defects you need to become aware of through your inventory. The 4th Step is not meant to be an in-depth psychoanalysis of ourselves, rather it is asking God to awaken us to seeing where our lives have been out of alignment with His will for us. It’s really that simple! So say a short prayer asking to be shown what you need to see; then get on with your writing.

HONESTY:

(Is it true or is it false?)

- How have I been dishonest with others and with myself?
- Have I lied, manipulated, cheated and stolen from others? List the big ones.
- Who was hurt by my dishonesty?
- How did this hurt my relationship with God, remembering that God is Truth?

UNSELFISHNESS:

(How will it affect others?)

- How has self-centeredness shown itself in my life and who has been hurt by it?
- Are there people, institutions or principles that still anger me? If so, is there a role I played – either bringing it about or holding on to my resentment?
- How have I put my own self-interest ahead of God’s plan for me to be of service to others?

PURITY:

(Is it right or is it wrong?)

- What past or present behaviors, thoughts or feelings make me feel guilty, isolated, or ashamed?
- What are the areas of my life that I don’t want others to see?

THE STEPS & THE TRADITIONS

STEP 4 - “Made a searching and fearless moral inventory of ourselves.”

TRADITION 4 - “Each group should be autonomous except in matters affecting other groups or A.A. as a whole.”

Remembering that my sex powers are God given and good, where has my sex life strayed from what I believe God's will is for me?

LOVE:

(Is it ugly or is it beautiful?)

- How has fear dominated my life?
- Has my life been isolated – a lonely life of “taking” rather than “giving”?
- Now, with God's help, am I ready make “love and service” my code?

The Big Book concludes the inventory section by saying: “If you have already made a decision, (Step 3) and an inventory of your grosser handicaps (Step 4), you have made a good beginning. That being so you have swallowed and digested some big chunks of truth about yourself.” Now ask yourself the following question: Have I knowingly omitted writing down anything I have done or left undone that makes me feel guilty, ashamed or separated from God, from people, or from myself? If your answer is an honest, “NO!” then get on to Step 5 as fast as you can; for, the Big Book promises:

“Once we have taken this step, withholding nothing, we are delighted. We can look the world in the eye. We can be alone at perfect peace and ease. Our fears fall from us. We begin to feel the nearness of our Creator. We may have had certain spiritual beliefs, but now we begin to have a spiritual experience. The feeling that the drink problem has disappeared will often come strongly. We feel we are on the Broad Highway, walking hand in hand with the Spirit of the Universe.”

Dr. Bob left his blessing on the Four Absolutes to help us find our way back to God whenever we get lost. He also left a warning to his fellow co-founder, “Bill, let's not louse this thing up. Let's keep it simple.” (DR. BOB and the Good Oldtimers, p. 343). I hope this simple guide would make Bob happy and further his wish to keep the Absolutes alive and well.

Secretary: Sarah B. Thanks to all the reps, if your group has a new rep please let them know what to expect, arrive early and get familiar with the back table.

Office Manager: Jeannie G. Thank you to the SPBCI office Volunteer Staff and the Telephone Relay volunteers. SPBCI is blessed with so many AA's willing to serve. The General Service Office in New York offers the Corrections Correspondence Service (C.C.S.) for individuals incarcerated for at least six or more months who are interested in writing to an outside A.A. member to share experience as it relates to problems with alcohol. There is a sizeable waiting list for male inmates. Anyone interested, please contact GSO Corrections Correspondence Service (corrections@aa.org).

Committee Reports:

Archivist: Michael G. No report. Excused absence.

Archives: Michele T. No report.

Bridge the Gap: Bari W. (women): No report. Dave F. (men): Excused absence, report given by Sarah B. Dave has reached out to a few treatment centers to inform them that we are available and willing to help. Please continue to let members in the community know this service is offered.

General Service Liaison: Molly B. These are the highlights from the District 8 meeting on February 8th 2015. Chairperson Kevin D gave opening remarks. Spoke about how there was one motion on the agenda but the person who made the motion did not show up, therefore it has been postponed till the April business meeting. Bob gave the treasurers report. Jaki N who is the special needs committee chair stated that they are still in need of people to volunteer who would be willing to bring meetings to home bound or hospitalized alcoholics. Also people who are willing to give rides to seeing impaired alcoholics. The motion that will be postponed due to the motion maker not being present was as follows: Motion 1: I motion that we delay the payments to GSO and the area until after the April quarterly. Motion made by Bob C.

Group Information: Position Open.

Hospitals and Institutions: Kitty B. and Emily L. Emily L gave the report. Currently, we have 52 meetings per week in 19 facilities. There have only been a few minor changes since last month's report. We are still in need of volunteers for many facilities, the requirements are at least one year of sobriety and it is a one year commitment, unless an alternate is found to share your commitment with you. Our last H&I meeting was held on February 21, 2015 at the Intergroup office in Delray, again with very few people coming out. H&I is desperately important as we are most often the first AA meeting experience for many newly sober people. Those who are willing to volunteer, please feel free to contact Jeannie at Intergroup, Kitty B., or myself. The next monthly H&I meeting will be held at the Intergroup office in Delray on March 21, 2015 at 2pm. Thanks to all of our current volunteers and anyone who wants to join us. This is an extremely wonderful way to give back what has been so freely given to us.

Public Information: Stuart M. Stuart thanked Cheryl S for all her support with the position. Our attendance at the Wellness Fair scheduled for Saturday, February 28th at the Boynton Mall is still undetermined. We won't know if there is any space available at no charge to us until Thursday of Friday. I received a response to my follow up letter from the Vice Principal of Boca Raton HS and dropped off information pamphlets to be distributed to the students. We will continue to push to get information into more high schools. District 8 PI/PC committee is holding an "Adopt A Doctor" information social on Sunday, March 8th at 1:30 in the Serenity Room. All volunteers who wish to participate are welcome to attend.

SCAAN: Maryann & John T. John gave report. The SCAAN is doing well, as always articles are always welcome. Please email to the Intergroup office by the 15th of the month. Telephone Relay: Joe M. The telephone relay sits in a good position, with having groups committed through July. We are always accepting new groups to sign up for the relay at any time. I am available to speak to any group about the relay phone and the responsibilities. Something that has come up this month, that hasn't in recent memory of the relay, and that's a group failing to take the phone for the month they have signed up for. We were able to cover the phone for this month but I want to emphasize the importance of this phone and the responsibility that comes with it. Please make sure that your group is aware of the month and has planned for it. If for some reason your group cannot take it for the time committed, please let me know so we can plan accordingly. Please don't hesitate to contact me with any questions you might have about the telephone relay. Where & When: Daniel L. & Kaely L. Kaely gave report. No new updates to the Where & When. Our next printing will be March or April 2015. The cutoff for changes is March 15, 2015. As of today we have 1600 copies. If you have changes or additions please submit them to Intergroup office via email at (southcountyyaa@comcast.net).
